The Third Conference of the International Association for Tourism Economics (IATE) is an opportunity for researchers, scholars and practitioners to come together and exchange ideas for discussing key developments in the field of tourism economics.

Papers that address applied issues on the field of tourism economics using rigorous techniques of analysis, as well as papers that make methodological or theoretical contributions in this area, are welcome. The process of selection will be based on scientific quality and relevance for economic and management policy. In particular, papers related to the following fields are particularly welcome:

- Tourism economic modelling
- Tourism competitiveness
- Tourism and the environment (including climate change)
- Economic analysis of tourism demand
- Evaluation of the tourism potential of environmental and cultural resources
- Tourism, economic growth and development
- Innovation in tourism
- The economic impact of tourism
- Tourism, labour markets and human capital
- Tourism policy
- Tourism taxation
- Economic analysis of tourism supply
- Transport and tourism
- The economics of mega-events, and the London 2012 Olympic Games.

Submission and paper selection

Researchers can select one of the following two options:

1. Submit an abstract of between 300 and 1,000 words no later than 7th January 2011. Abstracts will be double blind reviewed by the scientific committee and authors notified of acceptance no later than 22nd January 2011. Early submission of abstracts is encouraged in order to expedite the review process for those needing advanced notification of the status of their submission. Researchers who have had their abstract accepted need not submit a full paper if they prefer not to do so.
2. Submit a full paper for double blind review, no later than 22nd January 2011. Full papers will be double blind reviewed by the scientific committee and authors notified of acceptance no later than 31st March 2011. Those who submit a full paper will be invited to make any necessary revisions and re-submit by 15th May 2011, at latest. All re-submitted papers will be published in the electronic conference proceedings with an ISBN and distributed to delegates at the conference.

Selected papers will, with the author(s) permission, be included, subject to review by the journal, in a special edition of the international peer-reviewed journal Tourism Economics.

Early submission of abstracts and full papers is encouraged, and the committee will make decisions on acceptances and conference sessions as abstracts and papers are submitted.

All papers should be submitted using the format requirements in the Author Guidelines section of Tourism Economics website at: <http://www.ippublishing.com/te.htm>

Where do I send my paper (or abstract)?

All abstracts and papers must be submitted electronically to Dr Mondher Sahli at the email address of IATE secretariat: iate-secretariat@tourism-economics.net

Further information on paper submission will be available on the IATE website www.tourism-economics.net.

The International Association for Tourism Economics

During the conference, IATE's General Assembly will meet to discuss issues concerning the Association and to vote for the Executive Committee that will lead IATE from 2011-2015.
